Instructions: We recommend that our students read at least 2 books per language and log these books, and any other books they read over the summer, on their Summer Reading Log. Students should bring their Summer Reading Logs to school with them on the first day. We have listed some recommendations and resources below for each language. Have a great summer!

English Recommended Reading:

In addition to the books listed below, students have been assigned an English Recommended Summer Reading list in Epic!. They can access this list by logging into their CE1 Epic! account.

- Russell Wrestles the Relatives by Cindy Chambers Johnson; Daniel Duncan (Illustrator)
- What Do You Do with a Voice Like That? by Chris Barton
- Lucy and Andy Neanderthal by Jeffrey Brown
- The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies
- Ben Franklin’s in My Bathroom by Candace Fleming
- I’m Just No Good at Rhyming and Other Nonsense for Mischievous Kids and Immature Grown-ups by Chris Harris

French Recommended Reading:

In addition to the books listed below, students have been assigned a French Recommended Summer Reading list in Epic!. They can access this list by logging into their CE1 Epic! account.

- Tom déménage by Hans Wilhelm
- Drôle de pique-nique by Hans Wilhelm
- Les meilleurs amis du monde by Hans Wilhelm
- Tyranno: l’espèce de sale tricheur by Hans Wilhelm
- French Audiobooks

Spanish Recommended Reading:

- Spanish Recommended Summer Reading list (assigned in Epic!)
- Spanish Audiobooks